How do you find the right one? Not only is Absolute Home Care and Medical Staffing the solution for you and your family, but they also offer a few critical questions to ask as you begin this journey.

For nearly nine years, owners Becky Bigelow and Bobbie Ray have led a successful, locally owned and operated, quality in-home health care agency, servicing Southwest Michigan area.

Recently, Becky presented to a panel of financial advisors on "How to choose a home care agency". To begin, she advised creating a list of questions to assist in the decision making process. Some of these questions include:

What services do you offer? AHMS offers a variety of services including personal care, housekeeping, laundry, errands, transportation, medication set-up/monitoring, private nursing and respite care for family members.

Are your employees insured? All employees at AHMS are insured, bonded, and supervised by a registered nurse.

Is there a placement fee or cancellation cost? There is no start-up cost, nor cancellation fee. Services range from 2-24 hours/day.

May I have a list of references? Absolutely, how many would you like? ☺
